

THE HAIR PLAYBOOK

MARKET INSIGHTS & TREND-DRIVEN FORMULAS FOR THE FUTURE

Hair care is having its moment; not quietly, but boldly, and with serious staying power. What was once a routine category is now an open space for innovation, storytelling, and sensorial luxury. Across the globe, the market is projected to climb from $96.9 billion in 2025 to $132.8 billion by 2035, with the real acceleration happening in the premium segment. Brands are raising the bar with sophisticated packaging, elevated textures, and formulas tailored to every hair type and routine. Hair fragrance is emerging as a new category, with sometimes purely perfumed, other times blended with shine enhancers or conditioning to offer consumers a final, luxurious step in their regimen. Scalp care is expanding fast, with treatments that borrow from skincare and focus on barrier repair, detox, and overall scalp wellness. Meanwhile, silicone-free systems are one of the fastest-growing movements, as consumers shift toward cleaner, lighter, and more natural-looking results without sacrificing performance. Youth and teen-focused lines are on the rise too, with vibrant packaging and intuitive products designed to evolve with age and build early brand loyalty. There's also a noticeable rise in rice and jojoba-based formulations. These natural ingredients are used to boost strength, shine, and the overall look of healthy but now reimagined in modern formats. The message is clear: hair care is no longer background, it's the headline. Clean, premium, multifunctional, and beautiful, this category is redefining itself with purpose and polish.

To meet this evolving market with intention and imagination, Koster Keunen is introducing six new hair care formulations that align directly with these global trends. Each formula has been developed as a flexible chassis: high-performance, on-trend, and thoughtfully designed to support further customization or go straight to market. Whether you're inspired by the strengthening and shine-boosting power of natural waxes, the luxurious touch of hair fragrance, or the clean performance of silicone-free systems, these bases give you a starting point. With the right developmental eye, each one becomes a launchpad for brand-owned innovation and exciting formulas that only you could bring to life. We're here to provide the tools; the vision is yours. These are your blank slates.

Feather Hold Styling Cream

For soft structure without stiffness, Feather Hold Styling Cream delivers a natural, flexible hold with just the right touch of control. Built on Kostol ApiFree (our PEG-free alternative to PEG-8 Beeswax) this formula offers a clean-label fixative with low shine and a movable, lived-in texture. Universally adaptable across hair types, it's the perfect chassis for everything from sleek sophistication to effortless, undone styles. A true “any look, any day” base for brands ready to own their styling space.

Blow Out Bae Lotion

This weightless, silicone-free blow dry lotion is all about performance without compromise. Blow Out Bae supports better wet and dry combability while adding heat protection and smooth detangling for a polished finish. It leaves no buildup, making it a dream for clean-label positioning. Whether you take it luxury, salon-exclusive, or prestige naturals, this chassis is a ready-made foundation for heat styling innovation.

Lay Me Down – Silicone-Free Hair Control

Smooth, sleek, and in control, without silicones. Lay Me Down is a pumpable, mid-weight anhydrous formula crafted with Kester Wax K 70P to tame medium-to-coarse textured hair. It delivers lasting smoothness with a healthy-looking finish, perfectly aligned with the growing demand for silicone-free styling solutions. This formula is primed for brand-defining twists, from scent infusion to texture play.

Deluxe Cream Pomade

Sustainable Bayberry Wax and Beeswax set Deluxe Cream Pomade apart, offering a natural matte finish with a clean, non-greasy feel. Designed for a premium look and touch, it's a sophisticated alternative to cocoa or shea butter in styling creams. This formula is tailor-made for prestige or natural-focused brand lines, giving you a styling base with eco-conscious credibility and functional performance.

Every Strand Hair Cream

Meet the multitasker that works across audiences and categories. Every Strand Hair Cream will smooth frizz, soften texture, and offer everyday manageability in a unisex format. Using SynKos M-1063 instead of microcrystalline wax, for global compliances is cost-effective yet high-performing—ideal for mass market or accessible prestige. It's the kind of flexible base that can become a household staple under your brand's signature.

Invisible Hair Essence

Weightless, airy, and endlessly adaptable, Invisible Hair Essence is a featherlight conditioning mist that softens and detangles without residue. It's the perfect foundation for trending hair fragrance mists, shine sprays, or treatment boosters. With all-day combability and sensory elegance, this formula opens the door to both daily care and beauty-enhancing rituals.
